

If you feel that your condominium is a great place to live, then consider entering the CCI-Toronto Chapter

Condo of the Year Contest

- * How does your condo build community spirit?
- * Do you have a story for us about something special/unique your condo has done?
- * Have you overcome any financial concerns?
- * Tell us about some unique features of your condo.
- * Does your condo have unique social or cultural committees or clubs?
- * Has your condo developed any energy initiatives?
- * Does your condo effectively use its Committees? If yes, how?
- * How does your condo communicate, do you have quarterly newsletters?

CCI invites all corporations to enter the Condo of the Year contest.

Quarterly finalists will be selected by the CCI-Toronto Membership Committee and the winner of each quarter will be featured in an upcoming quarterly issue of the CCI CondoVoice magazine. The Grand Prize winner will be selected by the Public Relations Committee from the four quarterly finalists and will be announced in the fall of 2010.

The grand prize winner will be announced at the 2010 Annual General Meeting and will receive a street entry sign for their corporation – a prize worth up to $5,000.

Share your success with the condo community!

Interested applicants should forward their submission, including photos and an article or a letter answering any or all of the questions listed on the left outlining why they feel their corporation is worthy of this award to:
